Programme Notes

JOHANN SEBASTIAN BACH Suite No. 6 in D Major “Prelude”

This suite is the latest in Bach's cycle of cello suites. In this prelude, the main theme is repeated several times in different tonalities, the melody moves continuously from beginning to end.

LUDWIG VAN BEETHOVEN 12 Variations from Handel’s “Judas Maccabäus”

Each variation differs from each other in character, timbre, emotion, and association. The main melody is repeated several times in the cello and piano parts.

EDVARD GRIEG Cello Sonata in A Minor, Op. 36 I. Allegro agitato

This is a very emotional piece that will allow you to feel the entire spectrum of emotion.
